Life is more valuable then Money: CMD

Electrical Safety Week begins in APEPDCL limits

Visakhapatnam, November 15: The Chairman and Managing Director of APEPDCL Mr. Ahmad Nadeem urged the public to get electrical work done only by qualified licensed workers. He was speaking after inaugurating observance of the Electrical Safety Week at Gajuwaka Sub-station premises here on Monday (15th November 2010), which is being observed to create awareness among the public about the hazards involved in careless use of electrical equipment. On this occasion he released a wall poster prepared on Electrical Safety measures. After releasing of the wall posters he addressed the gathering and said that life is more valuable than money, every body should take care while using electrical appliances. Also he urged the consumers to spend money on quality electricity wiring for ensuring safety. He said that electrical accidents generally occurred due to ignorance and lack of safety devices. He highlighted the need to take effective preventive measures. He stated that electricity is playing very important role in the society, without electricity no work can done and development is not possible.

The CMD has appealed to the public not to construct houses or buildings underneath electric lines and to ensure children do not play near power lines. He asked people to call up '155333' in Visakhapatnam or the nearest electricity office in the districts in case of any emergency or defects in transformers for early rectification. He warned that the staff also follows the safety measures while working.

As part of this programme Mr. H.Y.Doara, Director (Operation), APEPDCL has released Phamplets prepared on electrical safety to the general public. Mr.B.Ramesh Prasad, CGM (O&CS), APEPDCL, and Mr.D.V.Ramana Murthy, S.E., (Operation), Visakhapatnam Operation Circle and local ward corporaters spoke on this occasion.

The programme was organised by the Superintending Engineer, Visakhapatnam Operation Circle, APEPDCL.
